S.N. Shtykov (Saratov, Russia), Chairman
Yu.K. Kovneristy (Russia), Co-Chairman
S.S. Grazhulene (Russia), Vice-Chairman
P.S. Hoffmann (Germany), Vice-Chairman
V.N. Zaitsev (Kiev, Ukraine), Vice-Chairman
W. Ensinger (Darmstadt, Germany)
K.V. Grigorovich (Russia)
Yu.A. Zolotov (Russia)

Local Organizing Committee

S.N. Shtykov, Chairman
T.Yu. Rusanova Secretary
S.S. Aleksenko
D.A Larionova

How to reach Saratov

By air Saratov airport is located only 3 kilometers from the city center. There are daily 3 flights to Moscow. The time on board is 1 hour 30 minutes. There will be one flight from Hanover in Aug. 25 and from Frankfurt in Aug.26.

By train There is a direct train from Berlin to Saratov and 3 trains from Moscow.

Contributions and sponsoring by companies and organizations are welcome.

Saratov was founded in 1590 as frontier garrison on the Volga to protect merchant ships on this waterway from being robbed. In the 1760's, colonists primarily from Germany settled in Saratov and the surrounding steppe near the Volga River. Saratov grew from a small provincial outpost to become one of the largest and most prosperous cities in Russia. Saratov today has a population of about 1 million and became a big industrial and cultural city. One of Russia's best-known composers, Alfred Schnittke, whose mother was a Volga German, was born in 1934 in Engels, located just across the river from Saratov, K. Petrov-Vodkin (1878-1939) and V. Borisov-Musatov (1870-1905), both celebrated artists native to Saratov. There are more than 15 Universities are now in Saratov. Saratov State University (SSU) is one of the oldest Russian universities, established in 1909. Today's university is an academic and research complex, a cultural and social center with 15 faculties and more than 20 000 students.

INVITATION

The Organising Committee and the Scientific Committee have pleasure to invite you to participate in the 10th Analytical Russian-German-Ukrainian Symposium (ARGUS) which will be held in Saratov (Russia) from Sunday evening, 26th August until Friday 31th August

GENERAL INFORMATION

It is the primary goal of the symposium to provide a platform, especially for young analytical scientists from Russia and the Ukraine to meet colleagues from Western Europe, mainly from Germany.

This conference offers the chance to learn from each other about scientific activities and mutual skills, modern analytical methods and instrumentation in various applications, to discuss and solve current analytical problems and to establish personal contacts, partnerships and new relationships.

ARGUS was initiated by Prof. Josif G. Yudelevich and Dr. Jo Dahmen and first organized in 1992 at the Institute of Inorganic Chemistry Siberian branch of RAS in Novosibirsk-Akademgorodok.". Subsequent symposia took place in Hirschegg (1993), Klimentovo (1994), Sovrino (1996), Düsseldorf (1997), Odessa (1999), Baikalsk (2001), Hamburg (2003) and Kiev (2005).

The 10th Symposium in this series continues 15-years tradition of conferences on Analytical Chemistry held alternately in Russia, Germany and Ukraine in honour of Prof. Yudelevich, who died in 1993. ARGUS 2007 is organized by: Saratov State University and Scientific Council on Analytical Chemistry of RAS, Russia.

TOPICS

- Nanoreactors in Analytical Chemistry;
- Nanosensors: Developments and Applications
- Nanoscaled materials in Chemical Analysis (tubes, particles, probes, crystals, membranes, etc.);
- Nanotechnology: Application in Analysis
  - New and Improved Technique in Separation Analysis
  - Surface Analysis, Sensors etc;
- NanoAnalytics: Education and Terminology Problems
- Miscellaneous, including microanalysis and objects

SCIENTIFIC PROGRAMME

The scientific programme will cover a broad spectrum of nanosystems, nanodevises and nanotechnologies - new topics in analytical chemistry - and its applications. Most of these topics will be introduced by contributed oral presentations and corresponding poster sessions. All accepted contributions will be published as a Proceedings of Symposium. The official Symposium language will be English. No translation will be provided!

CONFERENCE VENUE

The conference will take place at the holiday hotel located at the high right bank of the Volga river near Saratov. The conference building provides the lecture room, the exhibition and poster areas.

ACCOMODATION

Convenient and good-quality accommodation will be available in different buildings of the holiday hotel. The rates per night 30 EURO (double room) for every person and 50 EURO (single room), full board including.

SOCIAL PROGRAMME

Social events include welcome get-together party, sightseeing boat tour along Volga river, excursions to Art and War Museums and to the place where the first cosmonaut Yuri Gagarin landed in 1961, conference dinner, etc.

REPLY CARD OF ARGUS-2007

Please fill and return this registration form by e-mail till the 15th of May 2007 to the Conference Secretariat by mail. Proceedings should be submitted by the 1st of July.
